

WE BELIEVE IN ONE GOD

George Girgis and Kerollos Sabit

The Fallacy of worshipping Many Gods

Other religions like ancient Greek believed in many Gods, but to understand why One God is more logical, we need to know why other religions believe in many Gods.

How they believe in Gods

- Praying to different Gods for each materialistic problem they have
- Instead of earning your way from good deeds they pray for there wantings

One God Makes Sense

Worshipping one God makes sense and is better for us and everyone in this world.

Worshipping one God gives us the chance to build a relationship, not just for help but also just as someone to talk to when you need him.

- You will never be alone
- You feel like someone is there to talk to whenever
- Will never feel judged
- Help you work on your weaknesses

Verses

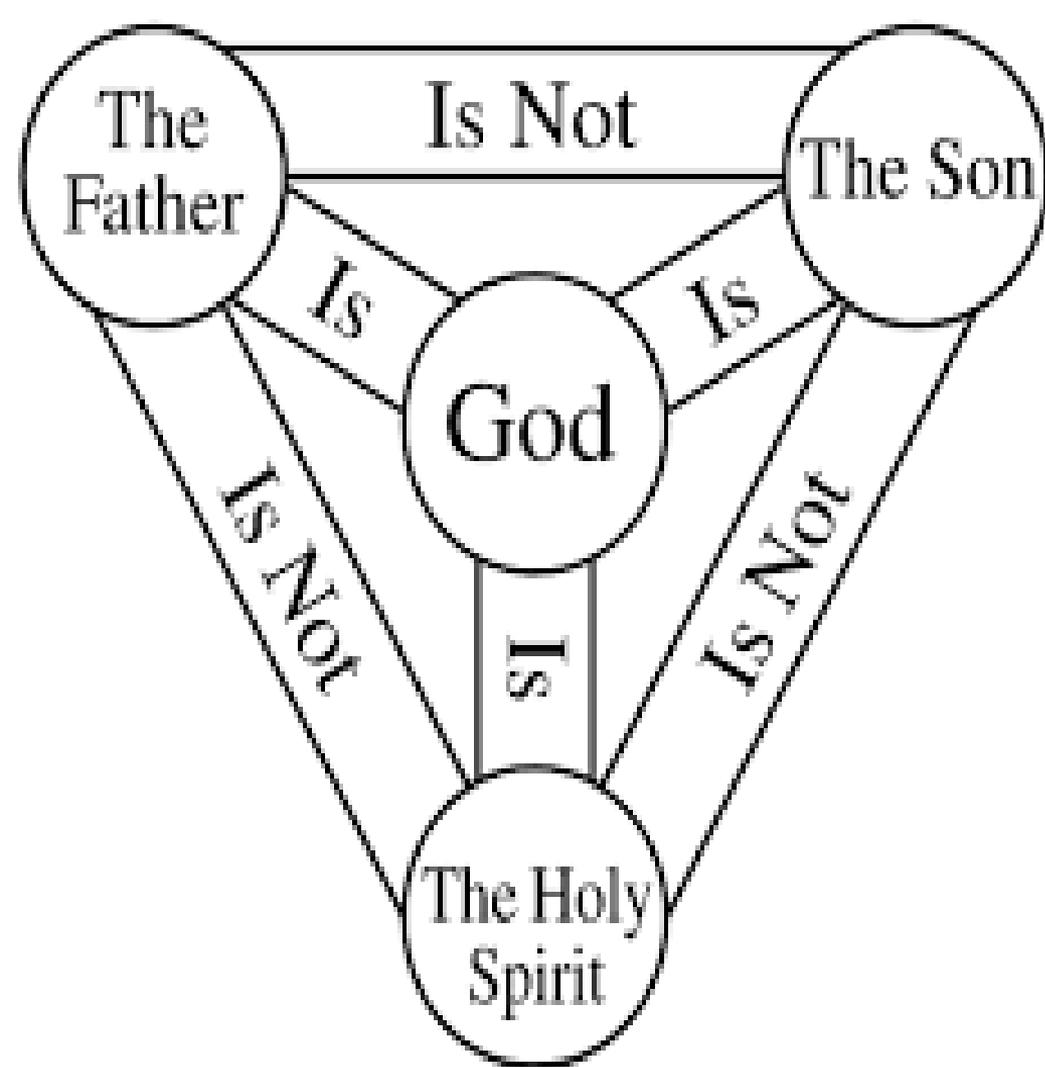

“He must be baptized and born again at the name of the Holy Trinity, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit”. Matthew 28:19

“The loving Father, the beloved Son, and the Holy Spirit who is the overflowing love that proceeds from the Father and rests in the Son”.

John 4

This is an image that describes how we, Orthodox Christians, see the Holy Trinity. The Father is not The Son, The Son is not the Holy Spirit, and the Holy Spirit is not The Father, but they are all One God.

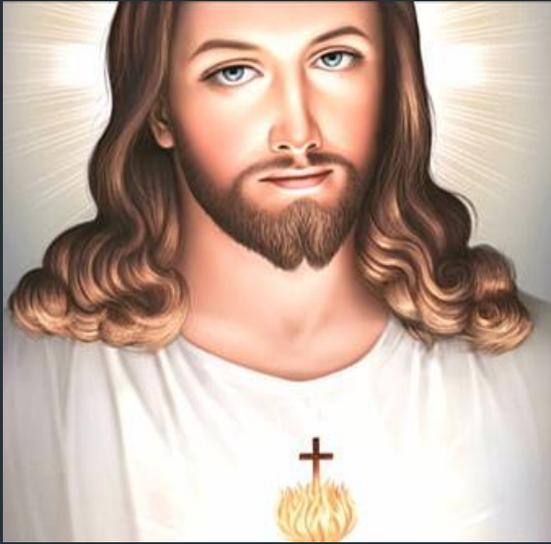

The Holy Trinity

The Father

- The Father is the source or origin of the Holy Trinity.
- When we pray, we pray to the Father and He listens to us.

The Holy Trinity

The Son

- The Son has His divine nature because he was begotten of the Father.
- The Son, Jesus, is not just divine, and not just human; He is both.

The Holy Trinity

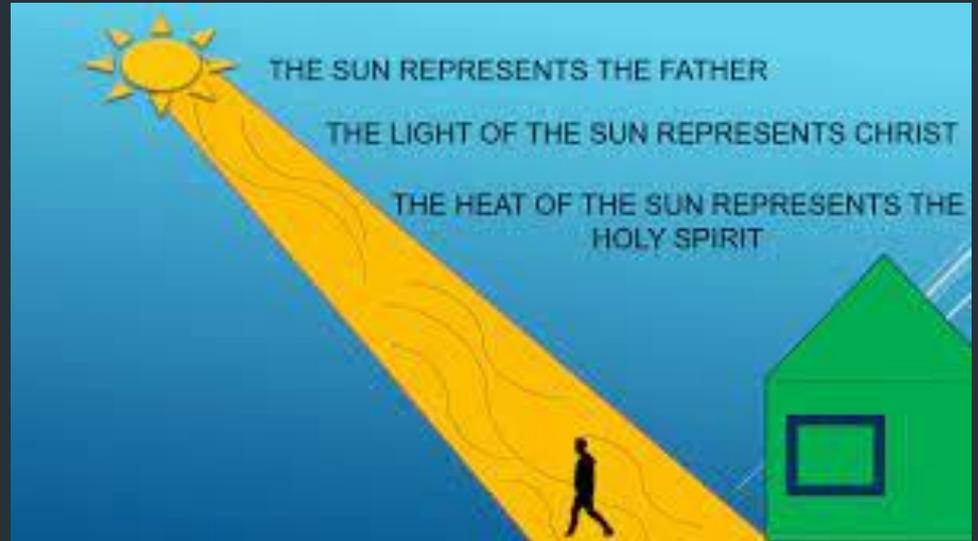

The Holy Spirit

- Unlike the Son, the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father alone.
- The Father still gives the same divine nature to both the Son and the Holy Spirit.
- We do NOT believe that the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son (Catholic Church)

Examples

SUN

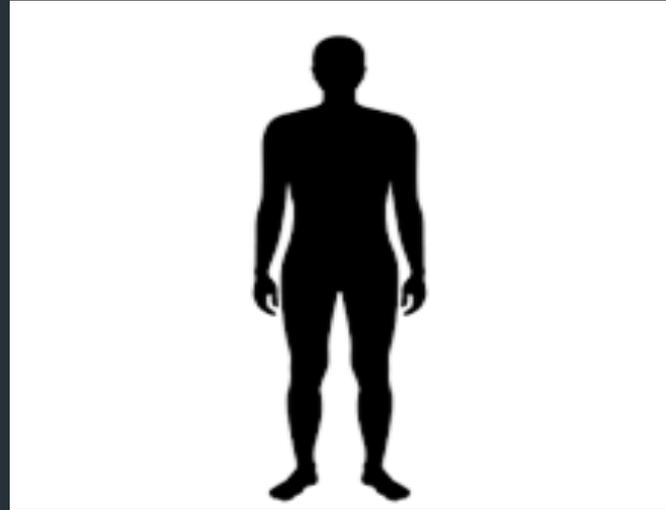

- Sun is Father
- Light is Jesus
- Heat is Holy Spirit

Examples

MAN

- Existence (body), gives him a mind, working by his spirit.

Coptic Orthodox Doctrine

In our Coptic Orthodox doctrine we believe that Jesus was human divine “His humanity and divinity didn't part away for a single moment or a twinkle of an eye” from the moment that ArchAngel Gabriel's annunciation to the Virgin Mary till Jesus death on the cross. (Jesus holding 1 finger representing his 1 nature -God incarnated in the flesh)

Non-Coptic Orthodox Doctrines

So in some non-Coptic Orthodox doctrines they believe that Jesus had two natures divine and human.

(Jesus holding 2 fingers representing 2 natures)

Question

Was the death of our Lord
Christ also the death of the Father and the Holy Spirit?
